

That's why we must break the poverty cycle by acting now, together

centraidery.org

start kindergarten without achieving all the stages of development needed to succeed, now and in the future students drop out before graduating

families have low incomes

Impact in Richelieu-Yamaska

Poverty has many consequences, now and in the future.
When any member of the community thrives, we all win.

Thank you for helping us to lend a hand up!

1 244

families, whose child is intellectually (and sometimes physically) disabled

were able to enjoy a respite for a few hours or few weeks throughout the year.

338

women victims
of conjugal violence
and their children

were welcomed at a women's shelter.

49 000

underprivileged children got school materials through the program Centraide Opération Septembre for the past 25 years.

47 262

friendly visits
or services

(grocery shopping service, escorted to appointments, etc.)

were offered to isolated seniors last year.

Network organizations offered

224 931

services

to people suffering food insecurity.

Nearly 979

organized workshops

enabled young people to deal with topics such as street gangs, bullying, homosexuality, substance abuse, violence, rejection, etc.

Centraide
Richelieu-Yamaska

1443, rue des Cascades
suite 204, Saint-Hyacinthe
(Québec) J2S 3H6

450 773-6679
Toll free: 1 844 773-6679
bureau@centraidery.org

www.centraidery.org

